

Notice of 2023 Price Increase

Dear Valued Customer,

Thank you for your continued loyalty to Parex USA. As we review our markets, processes, and capabilities in preparation for the coming months of the year, we want to keep you informed of changes so that you may plan accordingly.

Effective July 3, 2023, Parex USA, Inc. will be increasing its prices for all brands based on the following:

All Dry Stucco related products (including color) – 5%

Excludes Parex EIFS Basecoats

While these increases are unavoidable, we remain committed to continuing our partnership and keeping you competitive in the market. Please contact your local sales representative if you have any questions regarding this price change. Existing orders not shipped before the effective increase date will be subject to the new pricing.

Sincerely,
